

Arne the Slow

The steersman for the first boat on the island of Straven. Arne is the de facto second in command to Old Bjorn, and was the boat captain before Old Bjorn came to Straven. He's one of the oldest people on the island, and hugely experienced. There's little new to him, and he's very laconic. Speaks with a distinct island drawl.

His partner is Alwilda. They share one of the upstairs rooms overlooking the jetty in the new tenement that houses the main hall.

His shield bears a black snail on a blue field, with two wavy lines below.
