Free Worlds Alliance

The Free Worlds (originally Seven Worlds Defensive) Alliance is a collection of independent systems in quadrant one and quadrant eight. The original seven systems involved in the alliance are Killiekrankie, Pratt, Nose, Gat, Lamster, Damper and Radhakrishnan. Ankh joined in 3207 and the alliance was subsequently re-named. The Free Worlds Alliance is a member of the League of Non-Aligned Worlds. The FWA is allied to the Two Worlds Trade Zone.

Fleets

Garrisons: Each planet is protected by an interstellar destroyer, except Damper, which is protected by an interplanetary destroyer, and Kami, protected by a C5A. These destroyers are fast enough to chase down pirates.

Central Fleet: Central Fleet is the main striking power of the FWA fleet. It was this force that executed Operation PANAMA. It includes two carriers (Starbuck and Alliance), two Battleships, a heavy cruiser, an ALSI, a C1AS and three C5 for logistics support. It is slated to eventually include two destroyers. Central Fleet will launch Operation Line Drive.

South Fleet: South Fleet is a scout fleet, scouting sector BJ to warn of any alien incursions. It consists of eight C1AS and a C5A for logistics. South Fleet is partially funded by Earth.

East Fleet: East Fleet is planned to one day be a full battlefleet like Central Fleet, but for now it is only a paper command. It consists of one C1AS.

Reserves: The FWA has an LSSI in mothballs at Gat and a mothballed C5A at Radhakrishnan.

Other Forces

Ground Forces: The FWA Army comprises one Ground Force Brigade, the FWA Rapid Reaction Brigade. It is transported by a hired ALSI. The FWA Army wear black uniforms. The FWA Marine Corps also has an Independent Marine Regiment. This regiment was sent to Lon Chaney (although it did not see combat) and oversaw ground security for the Lamster conference. It is currently attached to Central Fleet. FWA Marines wear dark green uniforms.

Local Defensive forces: Ground troops not under FWA command include five militia divisions, two ISDs and two Ground Force Divisions. Of particular note is the Prattian army, a GFD. A battalion of the Prattian army saw combat at Lon Chaney, with a handful of troopers being wounded.

Missile Program: The FWA missile program is composed of Interplanetary Interdiction missiles and is currently mothballed on Kami. Other information is classified.

Intelligence Service: FWA intelligence was previously considered quite poor, but Jackson has invested an SV in the service and brought in UoX advisors to improve it. The Head of Alliance Intelligence is Commander Harry Dunne.

Independence Yards

The FWA constructed a shipyard at Damper, which was brought online on 10.055 . It is the first military shipyard built outside of the 'big eight' and the second shipyard of any kind built outside of Q0. The FWA is not bound by the agreements that prevent the 'big eight' powers from building shipyards outside of Q1, so it is perfectly legal. It has constructed an interplanetary destroyer and a CVI. It is currently constructing a DDI and a CAI

Shortly afterwards, on 3207.231 High Admiral Jackson, the former head of the SWDA military, was elected Chairman of the Council of Defense Ministers, based on his tough, no-nonsense reputation. He began to hire more professionally built warships. At the Lamster Conference in late 3207, the SWDA was renamed the Free Worlds Alliance. On 3210.061, Spuk in Q8 voted to join the FWA, making the FWA the ninth multi-quadrant power. In 3210, the FWA created an Alliance Free Trade Zone between its members.
