Mailing Lists

There are several mailing lists used to support the play by e-mail games mentioned above. These are run using mailman and so have a web interface for managing your subscription as well as publicly accessible web archives. These are the publicly accessible mailing lists, there are some others but those are by invitation only.

- berswar - the 'official' list for Humanity Will Prevail where posts should all be in character. You can use these links to the berswar list interface and the berswar mail archives to subscribe to the mailer or read its posts.
- OOO - An Out of Character (OOO) list for the players in the Humanity Will Prevail game where all the admin messages and general chatter goes. Mostly this is all game related but out of character rather than wildly off topic. OOO list interface and OOO mail archives
- SM (Starship Marine) - a list for those of us that play universe related roleplaying games on or around the full moon each month in the South London area. Currently we are playing in the Interstellar Freelance Unlimited \(IFU\) campaign. Some of this is played by e-mail through this list and other parts are done face to face with whoever can make the sessions. SM list interface and SM mail archives

Other material may well feature on occasion.
